Applying to the Haas Undergraduate Business Program as a Continuing UC Berkeley Student

If you're currently an undergrad at UC Berkeley, you may apply to the business major during your sophomore or junior year. You may only apply once. We evaluate applicants based on the following factors:

- Grades & Coursework
- Essays
- Activities & Awards

How to Apply

Follow the steps below to apply to the Berkeley Haas Undergraduate Business Program as a continuing UC Berkeley student.

Expand All

Step 1: Complete and submit the Haas online application.   +

Step 2: Complete prerequisites by the end of the spring semester.   +

These requirements must be completed by the end of the spring semester prior to fall entry into Haas:

- Complete a minimum of 60 semester units.
- Complete all major prerequisite courses listed below with a letter grade of C- or higher.
  - Note: Admission to the business major is competitive and highly selective. Grades in prerequisite courses are essential in helping us assess a student's ability to handle the academic rigor of the business major. Therefore the admission committee prefers that students take prerequisite courses for a letter grade. If you opt to take a prerequisite P/NP as allowed by your current college, the Haas admission committee will require that you submit a letter from the professor or the department stating what the letter grade would've been. Taking prerequisites P/NP or failing to submit a letter could adversely affect your admission decision.

Now that we have a list of prerequisites for a major (or two), we need to look up WHEN these classes are offered.

- When is my team's practice time?
- When can I take classes?
- Am I "in season"? Am I "out of season"?
- Should I try and keep my stress levels low this first semester?
- Should I push myself in this first semester because Spring is my competition season?

Part 4: Schedule Planning
Enrollment Checklist:

- ☐ My planned classes have no time conflicts.
- ☐ My planned classes are open/have seats available.
- ☐ I meet any enrollment restrictions for the classes I plan to enroll in.
- ☐ I meet any required prerequisites for the classes I plan to enroll in.
- ☐ I have checked the Final Exam schedule for my planned classes.
- ☐ I did not list upper division courses (#100-199) in my schedule. If I did, I have explained below why it's an appropriate course for me to take.

Briefly, explain why you chose each class below.

If you have a math course in your schedule, please list the highest level of math you've taken and if you have any relevant exam scores/college coursework.

Example: "I wanted to take a prerequisite class (Math 16A) for my intended major of Economics while also balancing my first semester with non-major requirements, such as Breadths (ESPM 50AC and Soci 3AC). As a student athlete, I have to take into consideration my daily practice schedule as well. I also plan on taking the 2-unit freshman athlete seminar (ED 98) and my 2-units of PE for my sport."

Part 4: Enrollment Checklist

Miscellaneous Tips/Info

- Don't enroll in classes with a number above 99 unless an Advisor says it's okay (e.g. Sociology 160 or Economics 100A)
- 200-level classes are for graduate students
- Don't enroll in classes with an "X" in FRONT of the subject (e.g. XGeography 50AC or XHistory 7A)

- Student athletes should take into consideration:
  - Practice Schedules (ask coach or ASC advisor)
  - In-season / Out-of-season
  - Conflicts with traveling for competitions
- Ed 98 (Scholar Athlete Transition Seminar)
  - Tues 11-1 or Tues 4-6 or
  - Wed 11-1 or Wed 4-6

Helpful hints

- If you enroll in 16 or 17 units, you can always drop a class and still be in 13 enrolled units for NCAA eligibility. You have 3.5 weeks to drop a class (except for a few Early Drop Deadline courses)

- In July, once you enroll in classes, CalCentral won't let you drop below 13 enrolled units (because you're coded as an athlete), but if you didn't show up to a lecture or a discussion section, the instructor can DROP you from their class! (Then you're temporarily "ineligible" and you have to enroll in another course; and what classes are still open the first week of school?)
