Henry Chung (M.Swimming)

Recognized for embodying a constant commitment to achieving lofty academic goals. As a transfer student, Henry took on a very rigorous load in his first semester at Cal in order to meet the deadline for applying to his desired major of Environmental Economics and Policy. Since that first semester, he hasn’t wavered from his personal drive towards excellence in the classroom and in the pool. Henry’s exceptional organization and time management skills allow him to consistently persevere as a Golden Bear.
